

NATHAN SCIARRA AIA, NCARB

Associate Principal

As an Associate Principal for KTGY, Nathan Sciarra is responsible for overseeing projects from site planning and schematic design through design development, construction documents and construction administration. Mr. Sciarra's expertise ranges from custom and production single family homes to high density multi-family projects at 189 dwelling units to the acre. He has experience working with national public builders as well as local developers throughout communities in California, Nevada, Utah, Hawaii and Colorado. Mr. Sciarra is on the leading edge of multi-family/mixed-use design, understanding current market trends and renter profiles as well as current construction techniques and materials.
