

ALISA ROMERO AIA, NCARB

Director, Production

As Director of Production in KTGy's Denver office, Alisa Romero oversees the design and construction of multifamily communities at suburban and urban infill sites throughout Colorado and the greater region. Her comprehensive experience and strong technical knowledge help her lead a team from schematic design and entitlements, to production of construction drawings and construction observation. As a team leader, Ms. Romero draws from her industry and construction knowledge to manage a skilled professional staff to deliver the highest level of complete, coordinated, code compliant communities that meet or exceed client goals.
